Portsmouth News - Reception class photos

On the morning of Tuesday 6th October, a photographer from Portsmouth News will be in school to photograph our new reception classes for their annual supplement feature celebrating the children's start to school life.

The images will be featured in the newspaper as well as on the Portsmouth News website and social media channels, therefore, if you have not given permission for your child to be included in printed publications, media or social media when completing your consents they will not be included in the photograph. You can check your parental consents via the Arbor app. Please notify the school office if you wish to update your choices.

The 'First Class' 2026 supplements will be published in The News on Tuesday 17th & Wednesday 18th November and will be organised alphabetically by school.

Kind regards,

Mrs L Wilson-Woodham
Deputy Headteacher
